Amateur Radio Electronics Hamfest

Auburn, CA., Jan.15, 2015-- Sierra Foothills Amateur Radio Club of Auburn, CA will hold their first Annual ARRL Sanctioned Hamfest 7:30am to 11am on Saturday, March 14th, 2015 at the Historic Loomis Train Depot Plaza located at 3640 Taylor Road in Loomis, CA.

SFARC is a growing, progressive, ARRL Special Service Club located in Auburn, CA. At almost 100 members, SFARC is one of the largest clubs in the area. We educate, provide assistance to members, others and the community. Our Volunteer Examiners hold license exams every first Saturdays, monthly. More can be found at: <http://w6ek.org>

A Hamfest is an electronic flea market where vendors, Amateur Radio Operators and shortwave enthusiasts gather to sell, trade and show their radio and electronic wares. Always a great social event that draws people from all over the state and neighboring states.

Bob, K6UDA, Hamfest Chairperson says: "This event will become one of the favorites in Northern California. Bring your friends and family and experience what Amateur (Ham) Radio is all about. And maybe find something you just have to own.:

There is FREE parking, FREE admission for Buyers and $10 for 10x10 spaces for Sellers. There will be food and refreshments available for purchase.

The location is an easy exit #110 Horseshoe Bar Road off I80. Go North to locate the Historic Loomis Train Depot Plaza. For Ham Operators, talk-in will be on the W6EK/r: 145.430 MHz, - and PL 162.2
